John Polit

Sure, since I said "Okay" I've been in a bad mood. Heh,heh.

For no reason whatsoever.

Heh, heh.

What I'm thinking is that I'm going to have whatever is with the family, and another group only for me, and another one with the Eljuri folks.

And if it's for growing, then it should be better.

I do agree.

I think that's good.

Have something for them.

They shouldn't stop you from whatever you want to do and for you to continue without any obstacles.

Sure, that's what I thought. Besides, I've worked for my kids.

I have to have their things so they can have as well.
